NOTICE OF APPARENT LIABILITY FOR FORFEITURE

Released: November 18, 2002

By the Enforcement Bureau, Tampa Office:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. In this Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture (“NAL”), we find Jhony Desinor apparently liable for a forfeiture in the amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for willful violation of Section 301 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (“Act”).¹ Specifically, we find Jhony Desinor apparently liable for the operation of an FM broadcast station on the frequency 105.9 MHz without Commission authorization.

II. BACKGROUND

2. On July 2, 2002, the FCC Enforcement Bureau’s Tampa Field Office (“Tampa Office”) received a complaint alleging that a pirate radio station was being operated from a residence located at 4073 Coconut Circle North in Naples, Florida.

3. On July 16, 2002, agents from the Tampa Office investigated the complaint and, using direction-finding techniques, determined that a radio broadcast station on frequency 105.9 MHz was being operated from a residence located at 4073 Coconut Circle North in Naples, Florida. A two-bay FM broadcast-type antenna was mounted on a tower at the residence. Based on field strength measurements taken by the agents of the station’s signal, a Commission authorization was required to operate the station.² At approximately 7:30 p.m., the station was heard on the air and there appeared to be live programming by two male operators. Shortly thereafter, the agents inspected the station. The operator on duty at the microphone was Jhony Desinor. The agents asked Mr. Desinor if he had a license to operate the radio station, to which Mr. Desinor replied that he had no license. At the agents’ request, Mr. Desinor deactivated the transmitter. Later, the agents interviewed the property owner who stated that Mr. Desinor was one of the operators of the radio station.

III. DISCUSSION

4. Section 301 of the Act sets forth generally that no person shall use or operate any apparatus for the transmission of energy of communications or signals by radio within the United States except under and in accordance with the Act and with a license. On July 16, 2002, Jhony Desinor operated radio transmitting equipment on the frequency 105.9 MHz without benefit of the required Commission authorization.

5. Based on the evidence before us, we find that on July 16, 2002, Jhony Desinor willfully³ violated Section 301 of the Act by operating radio transmission apparatus without a license.

6. Pursuant to Section 1.80(b)(4) of the Rules,⁴ the base forfeiture amount for operating a radio station without a Commission authorization is $10,000. In assessing the monetary forfeiture amount, we must also take into account the statutory factors set forth in Section 503(b)(2)(D) of the Act, which include the nature, circumstances, extent, and gravity of the violation, and with respect to the violator, the degree of culpability, any history of prior offenses, ability to pay, and other such matters as justice may require.⁵ Considering the entire record and applying the factors listed above, this case warrants a $10,000 forfeiture.

IV. ORDERING CLAUSES

7. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED THAT, pursuant to Section 503(b) of the Act,⁶ and Sections 0.111, 0.311 and 1.80 of the Rules,⁷ Jhony Desinor is hereby NOTIFIED of this APPARENT LIABILITY FOR A FORFEITURE in the amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for willful violation of Section 301 the Act by operating a radio station without Commission authorization.
